"This volume contains the result of observation made by the late Lord Holland curring various residences abroad, and of shormation furnished to him on these occas one, as well as some additional goest talked in Lordon.

The attractive qualities of the book are great. Lord Holland had the faculty of sening upon the salient points of memory, character and events, so that he server wearnes his reasons by munificant. He infiness into his narrative the p. labed asse of the accomplished gentleman of the old wholl His style is flowing, disornatio, pellocid and conversational; he appears so the roughly possessed with his rabdium of conversace, hat his words drop from him without effort. Lord Holland are the five old His style gentleman in whom good manners is se habitual, that be thinks, or essents to think, softing of what he maxing as the weapen it is cannot go wrong. The style has the "carreness" but numerative in a section that evently has a supposed that the value of the first him of the street on a style has the timpertiset pulse affects, or to men whose nature are made in the section of the street on a stall of a street on a stell electricism as its."

American Chancery Digest.

PANKS, GOULD & CO. have just published, and for sale. THE AMERICAN CHANCERY DIGEST. In 3 vots. Third edition. A new and complete Equity Digest of American Law. By Thos. W. Waterman, of the New York bar. This work is designed to be a complete encyclopacitia of American Legal Science. Containing, as it does all the reported decisions in Equity of the United States Courts, and of the Courts of the several States of the United States Courts, and of the Courts of the several States of the Union, from the earliest period to the present time, it embodies almost every known principle of law. It is believed it will be found the most valuable work of the kind ever published in this country. Though ostensibly the Third Edition of the American Chancery Digest, it is an entirely new work; not only the pisn and arrangementa being new, but a very large proportion of the materials also. The decisions have, in every instruce, been carefully read, and the soirti of them taken, with proper regard to accuracy and to their time meaning. Beside the usual matter the work contains valuable explanatory notes, and a copieus index, giving in brief the spirit of every decision; also, an introductory essay upon the nature, power and functions of the Court of Chancery, and the history of that Court. In England, and in each of the American States.

E. G. & Co. have become the proprietors of JOHNSON'S CHANCERY REPORTS, 7 vols. They will supply the trade and the profession with sets, or any volume to complete sets.

To the Medical Profession.—Just Published, Part 22, of The Court in Court in Court in Court in England, and in each of the American States.

To the Medical Profession.—Just Published, Part 22, of PAITHWAITE'S MEDICAL RETROSPECT—July to January, 1851.—The present number of this journal will be found equally interesting to the profession with its predecessors, containing as it does, a complete and reliable digest of whatever new discoveries have been made in the Medical Sciences within the last six months. To the active practitioner, no less than to the student, the work is invaluable.

TERMS—Per number, 75 cents; per annum, $1 50; and for the whole series, No. 1 to 22, in Nos. $13 50; bound, in 9 vols. $18, invariably in advance.

SEQUEL TO MEMOIRS OF A PHYSICIAN: By ALEXANDER DUMAS.
THE QUEEN'S NECKLACE:
Or, the Secret History of the Court of Lauls XVI., being the sequel to Dumas's celebrated work. "The Memoirs of a Physician," by Alexander Dumas, author of "The Iron Mask," 'Count of Monte Cristo, '&c. &c. Translated from the French by Thomas Williams, Esq. with beautifully illustrated Govers and Portraits. Compete in two large octavo volumes. Price 50 cents a volume.

This novel is founded on the celebrated incident of the diamond necklace, which Cardinal Rohan purchased, as he supposed, for Marie Antoinette, but which fell into the hands of a female sharper, who personated the Queen, and so duped the poor Cardinal. Dumas always writes with spirit. The present is better than most novels now-a days, and we recommend it as an agreeable companion for a Railroad car, or a rainy afternoon. Complete in two large octavo volumes. Price 50 cents a volume.

Published and for sale at the cheap Bookstore of T. B. PETERSON, 38 Chesout-st Philadelphia. For sale at the Periodical Stores and News Agancies in the City of New-York, and all over the United States.

TESTIMONIALS OF ABILITY AND RECOMMENDATION.

"Adjusting Spectacles to vision, requires great judgment on the part of the Optician. Many sights are injured, and some totally lost, for want of this. We the undersigned Physicians, consider it of the utmost importance to the public to have good Spectacles, and accurately applied.
Mr. SKOTT delivered an interesting and instructive Public Lecture on the subject, in the Society Library, Broadway, on Nov. 29, 1859. He is well acquainted with the Science.
Therefore, we recommend him as a very competent, practical Optician. George Wilkes, M.D. 22 Laight at Surgeon
